The Magic

Children of yesterday,
 Mine of tomorrow,
 What are you gaining?
 Labor and sorrow?
 Look to your room again
 Faded and faded
 Fly the great shuttle
 Repairs by the Master,
 Life in the room,
 How you do -- how!

Dedication

We the class of '55 do sincerely dedicate our yearbook to Miss Mary E. Malley to show our appreciation to her for the help and guidance she has so generously and kindly given to us during the past four years. We are truly grateful for the interest she has shown us — interest that did not stop with the end of the school day.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

The Echo Staff has chosen for the '55 annual an appropriate theme, "The Magic Carpet." Our theme is used to represent the magic and wonder of our years in Enfield High. The world we have lived in for the past four years was indeed a world of learning, growing up, and enjoyment.

As you scan these pages the achievements of the Class of "55" as a whole and as individuals will be unfolded.

It is difficult to point at any one goal and say, "We have aimed for this and have reached it." The variety of activities and the wonderful and varied stages of learning prevents this. But, with our theme we shall try to weave together the binding thread of the quest for knowledge, the bright patterns of our extra-curricular activities and the threads of sportsmanship, understanding and joy that blend all together to weave "The Magic Carpet" of a successful voyage through the loom of education, our Enfield High School.

This book is, for us, a record of achievements and a means of expressing our sincere appreciation to those who have made those achievements possible. We appreciate to the fullest extent the knowledge gained and the awakening to the life we go forth to face.

STORYBOOKS

WHATEVER IS WORTH DOING AT ALL,
IS WORTH DOING WELL.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

CLASSMATES:

We have just completed four enriching years at Enfield. These years have been a preparation for our future, whether we continue our education or seek employment of our approval. What awaits us in the future, we do not know, but we do know that the knowledge and wisdom acquired by us here at Enfield will be of great assistance to us in solving all our problems.

As we march past this milestone of achievement in this June of 1955, we can look in retrospect and see that what is probably our greatest lesson is illustrated in our class motto: Whatever is worth doing at all, is worth doing well.

Our lessons have been well learned; our ideals have been well set; and our characters have been well-formed in this, our Enfield High School. We are grateful to you who have made all this possible for us. We are grateful to our parents, our teachers, and our friends for providing us with the facilities to achieve worthwhile goals. We shall show our appreciation by doing our tasks well.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Friends:

I, Joseph Sperrazza, duly appointed attorney for the Graduating Class of 1955, hereby read before this audience the last Will and Testament of the departing class.

These past four years of formal education have helped immeasurably to prepare us in our quest for our rightful place in the world. The path to full participation in the life we go forth to face has been a fruitful one. The acquisitions of the past four years, material goods and other worthwhile assets, we hereby bestow to our successors. With these bequests, we leave our most sincere hope that they will be well utilized by our worthy heirs. To all students we pass the unquenchable, spiritual Fire of Wisdom, trusting that they will keep the intellectual fires burning brightly. Moreover, the Graduating Class of 1955 bequeaths the following:

Item I: To Mr. Tatoian, to the Board of Education and to the staff of Enfield High we leave our best wishes and sincerest thanks for all that they unselfishly gave so that we might face the future confidently and unafraid.

Item II: To Mr. Nigro we leave peace and quiet for a few months and our word that we will faithfully practice all that he has preached.

Item III: To the Juniors we leave the consecrated realm of the Seniors' Room 26.

Item IV: To the Sophomores we leave one more year in which to try to reach the standards necessary to become Seniors.

Item V: To the Freshman Class we leave our suave, dignified air, good manners, and common courtesies, which we trust will be used wisely.

Item VI: To the following named heirs we leave the particular assets acquired by various members of our distinguished class.

1. Louise Fiore leaves his multiple talents acquired in sports, the classroom, and school politics to George Paré of the Sophomore Class.

2. Iris Kamaros leaves her efficiency in work, and friendliness in play to Barbara Lajoie.

3. Robert Mercik and Victor Marone leave their outstanding record in football to Matthew Porcello and Wilfred Bourque, who may in time be almost as good as Bob and Vic.

4. Walter Dineen and John Cerrato leave a bottle of vitamin pills to Karl Russotto and Ruppert Gove, who will surely need them to rise to the heights of Jack and Wally's mark in basketball.

5. Brenda Balke leaves the task of leading the cheerleaders to any member of the squad who has the tremendous amount of pep required.

6. Arthur Newport and Shirley Lee leave their constant chatter and boisterous ways to Tommy Cuscovitch and Jean Provencher, who, we hear are quiet and need some pepping up.

7. Sally Ann Hamilton leaves her dancing ability to Barbara Jolly, who one day will dance as beautifully as our Sally Ann.

8. The fame group of singers from the Senior Class known as the "Coldcuts," leave their vocal talents to any aspiring group of underclassmen willing to come up the hard way.

9. The girls of Mr. Staszko's driving classes leave what is left of Mr. Staszko's nerves, patience, and driving car to next year's students.

10. The Yearbook Committee leaves to the next committee the task of recording the achievements of their class.

With all our assets generously distributed among the underclassmen, we hereby appoint Mr. Tatoian and the faculty as executors of our estate. In witness thereof we do hereby set our hand and seal this twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty five.

CLASS HISTORY

I

On a September morn in '51
We started on our quest.
The Magic Carpet's flight's begun
From North, South, East and West.

Its destination was Enfield High
Our future to be weaving.
Reluctantly we all drew nigh
Yet not one thought of leaving.

Confusion reigned and orders flew
Bells signaled change of classes.
We learned of Latin and science, too,
An became acquainted with passes.

Friendships grew and the time soon came
Our officers to choose.
Fair Iris won everlasting fame—
A girl President! That was news!

"Our Miss Brooks" was the play selected
Under Mrs. Mullen's direction.
Actress Edith to a lead elected
Played her part with aplomb and perfection.

Tradition dictated that there be
Formal greeting to the Freshmen.
And so with anticipation and glee,
We attended the Senior-Frosh Reception.

II

Vacation o'er our flight resumed,
Eager sophomores we became.
Responsibilities we now assumed
While on the road to fame.

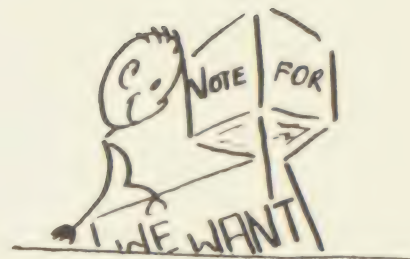

With varied talents to offer
And willing hearts and hands,
We added pennies to our coffer
By a food sale and a dance.

Ours was a class of distinction
In fifty-two and three,
Our record defies competition,
It's there for all to see.

Brenda graced the cheering line
As our athletes strong and tall
Contributed their talents fine
On gridiron and in basketball.

Class officers were named anew,
Louis became our President.
Student Government Day hove into view,
Bren and Anne were proud incumbents.

A hit in every way
Was the dramatic presentation.
"Brother Goose" much talent displayed,
Our histrionic ability, a sensation!

SOPHOMORE
DANCE

III

Again we entered Enfield's doors
In the fall of '53,
Proud Juniors — not just Sophomores —
Full fledged upper classmen were we.

Cheerleaders, coaches and players
Comprised the happy throng
That journeyed off to Hingham
Midst laughter and midst song.

The Pioneer Valley Trophy was ours
Won by our football team.
The Valley Wheel Champs were our hoop stars
And set our eyes agleam!

"Mr. Co-Ed" passed all inspection
As Judy, Bren and Edie trod the boards.
"The Mikado" was a gala production
Bringing the Far East to our shores.

The Moonlight Serenade Prom was keen
Irene and Dario greeted all.
Tommy and June together were seen
At Blue Mist, the Farewell Ball.

Two representatives to Girls' State
And four proud Nutmeg boys
Were named as happy delegates,
A week's conference to enjoy.

IV

O happy hour, O long awaited day!
At long last Seniors we became!
Lou, Eileen, Iris, and Bob led the way
Of a class well on its way to fame.

Captained by Mercik and Marone
On the gridiron our eleven was seen.
And on the court the Valley Wheel Crown
Retained by Captains Cerrato and Dineen.

The Seniors frolicked at a Winter's Dream
In the auditorium decorated anew.
At the annual reception, much delayed it seemed,
The Freshmen passed in review.

"Beauty and the Beef" was aptly produced
And provocative of many a laugh.
Ere long much hustle and bustle ensued,
Joe led the '55 "Echo" Staff.

A visit to the Capitol of our Nation
Began the highlights of our Senior days.
Then Class Night and Graduation,
Our Farewell Prom we'll remember always.

Our characters have been finely woven,
The pattern has been set,
And on the paths of life we've chosen,
Dear Enfield we'll never forget!

EXTRA

CURRICULE

CLASS PROPHECY

It has been twenty years. That's a long time to be away from home. I wonder if my classmates have been successful in the fields they have chosen. I think I'll walk to the school to see if there have been any changes.

I keep wondering what has become of my pals. Look! What does that sign say? Why, that's the engineering firm of (ROBERT) TUOMALA and (SAMUEL) KRESGE. Is that MARY ANN CARENZA, the head receptionist? Looks as if she's talking to her boss JOSEPH MACIOLEK. Who's handing that blueprint to the secretary? Why, that's SAVERIO CARONNA, and the secretary is BARBARA SPADORA. Gee, it's good to see some of the gang again!

Hmmmmmm. I wonder what this building is. The plaque says Architects; J. CERRATO and D. RUSSOTTO. That must be Jack and Dario. Construction Company; CALCASOLA and SACCO. I wonder if there is anyone I know working in this building? I'll look in the directory, First floor—DONALD MONTANO, RONALD MAYLOTT, and RAYMOND HOWLAND, Commercial artists. Home office of the (RICHARD) PRAYZNER Landscape Company. (LAWRENCE) BERTRAND Lumber Company. Second floor—SALLYANN HAMILTON Dance Studios. PETER GANNUSCIO and EDWARD GUTKOWSKI, Wholesalers. Third floor—LOUIS FIORE, D.D.S.; Attorneys-at-law, THEODORE TENEROWICZ and JAMES VIOLA. Why, those are all my classmates. There go three more down the hall. JUDITH VASSALLO, LYNNE PIANKA, and IDA TORRE. They must be secretaries here.

What's that newsboy shouting? "JOHN HINCKLEY elected mayor." I'd better buy a newspaper and find out what's going on. Page one. "F.B.I. closes in, BARRY BAKER makes final arrest"—written by B. BELISLE. What? The editorial written by D. BASCOM, editor? She's come a long way from the student "Ticker." I'll bet there's somebody I know on the sports page. Wow! "ALVIN ARROWSMITH pitches no-hitter." I remember him on the school ball team. I guess I'd better get going if I want to see the school.

That building wasn't there when I left. It looks like an office building. Home office of (JOSEPH) SPERRAZZA and (ROBERT) WELCH Electronics Corporation. There are a lot of doors open; it wouldn't hurt to take a look. There are a receptionist and two secretaries. I know the secretaries; SANTA CASSOTTA and FLORENCE PETRONELLA. But who's that receptionist? I must know her. Yes, that's BERNADINE QUAGLIAROLI. Well, RAYMOND CORMIER is head of the Repair Department. I wish that secretary would turn around, so I could see who it is. Is it SALLY FIELDS? It must be. Look at all the television sets they handle in the shipping room. I can see at least three girls working here. Yes, that's CAROLINE TKACZ at the desk and there's MARIE LOVOI with the batch of papers under her arm. I think that's JANE HOGINSKI at the phone. I wonder who is the head of all this. The name on the door is ROBERT CONTOIS. He always was the ambitious type. I can't go any farther; CHARLES ZARCARO is in conference with the buyer, DEANNA AUGUST. I'd better go before I get sidetracked again.

There seems to be a meeting across the street. It's the Society for the Improvement of Agricultural Techniques. I know the person speaking now. That's ROBERT MACLEISH. He's introducing three representatives of the tobacco farmers; WALLACE SIMMONS, JACK UNDERWOOD, and JOSEPH MARCINOWSKI. There must be someone else I know in the crowd. There are a few familiar faces. That's ARTHUR LYNCH and JAMES POLESKI. Looks like they are preparing a speech. There, next to one of his trucks, is ARTHUR NEWPORT.

What's this place? R. SQUIER Service Station. Look who's under that rack—CARMINE RENNA and JOHN BURNS. I'll bet they're the best mechanics in town.

Stop here for a while, driver: The new hospital looks pretty good from here. I think I'll go inside and look around. My, that receptionist looks familiar. That's IRENE CHERNAVICH. There's a Personal Directory on the wall. Hmmmmmm. Science Department—WALTER DINEEN, VICTOR MARONE, and THOMAS O'BRAM; Resident physician—LAWRENCE GASKELL. Bacteriology Department—ARLEN SCHWELM, MARY ANN CROMBIE. X-Ray Laboratory—BEATRICE GATI, IRIS KAMAROS, SANDRA BRISTOL, and FLORA ALBANO. Physical Therapy—BRENDA BALKE, and JUDITH GUTMAN. They are all doing pretty well for themselves. Well, look who's walking down the hall—three nurses, BARBARA JANSUJWICZ, JEAN ALESKWIZ, and MARIE URBANOWSKI. Ah, here comes GLORIA LOCARIO in her nice white uniform. I'll ask her how to get out of this hospital.

Boy, this is a nice place for a hospital. The only thing that interferes with the view is that low, modern building over there. I wonder what it's for. Connecticut Atomic Energy Company. Oh, yes, I've read about that. BENEDICT PUTRIMENT is the president. I wonder if they will let me in?

There are no guards; that's a surprise. Will you look at the size of this room? There must be fifty secretaries at least. There's PATRICIA SMITH, JOYCE MYERS, SHIRLEY POWELL, JOYCE CRAMER, and CLAUDIA POMEROY. Gosh, this is just like "Old Home Week." Here's a door marked EDWIN MILLER, Investigator. He must have an important job; he has two secretaries; THERESA TROIANO and ROSANNE MERCOLINO. Here comes military attache, JOHN HARTLEY, with his stenographer, JOAN CHARETTE, and secretary LEONA REMBIESA. Say, there's a group of familiar faces. I have just been told that they are discussing the advantages of atoms in the home. I recognize them now. The two technicians are ROLAND GREGORY and ALFRED NOLL. The other two are the noted home economists ELIZABETH WALLACE and SANDRA SCHLICHTING. Standing by with notes and files are secretaries, JOYCE CHARETTE, SHIRLEY CROCHETIERE, and BETTY DINGWELL.

The only big room that I haven't looked into is being used for a high-level conference. This is headed by ROBERT MERCIK, who has won fame for his new theory about atomic energy. Sitting in on the conference are SHIRLEY LEE, FLORENCE MARKOWSKI, and NOREEN MISIASZEK. I guess these are their reliefs coming now, KAY LAMICA, JOYCE GROSSO and BARBARA BOURGEOISE.

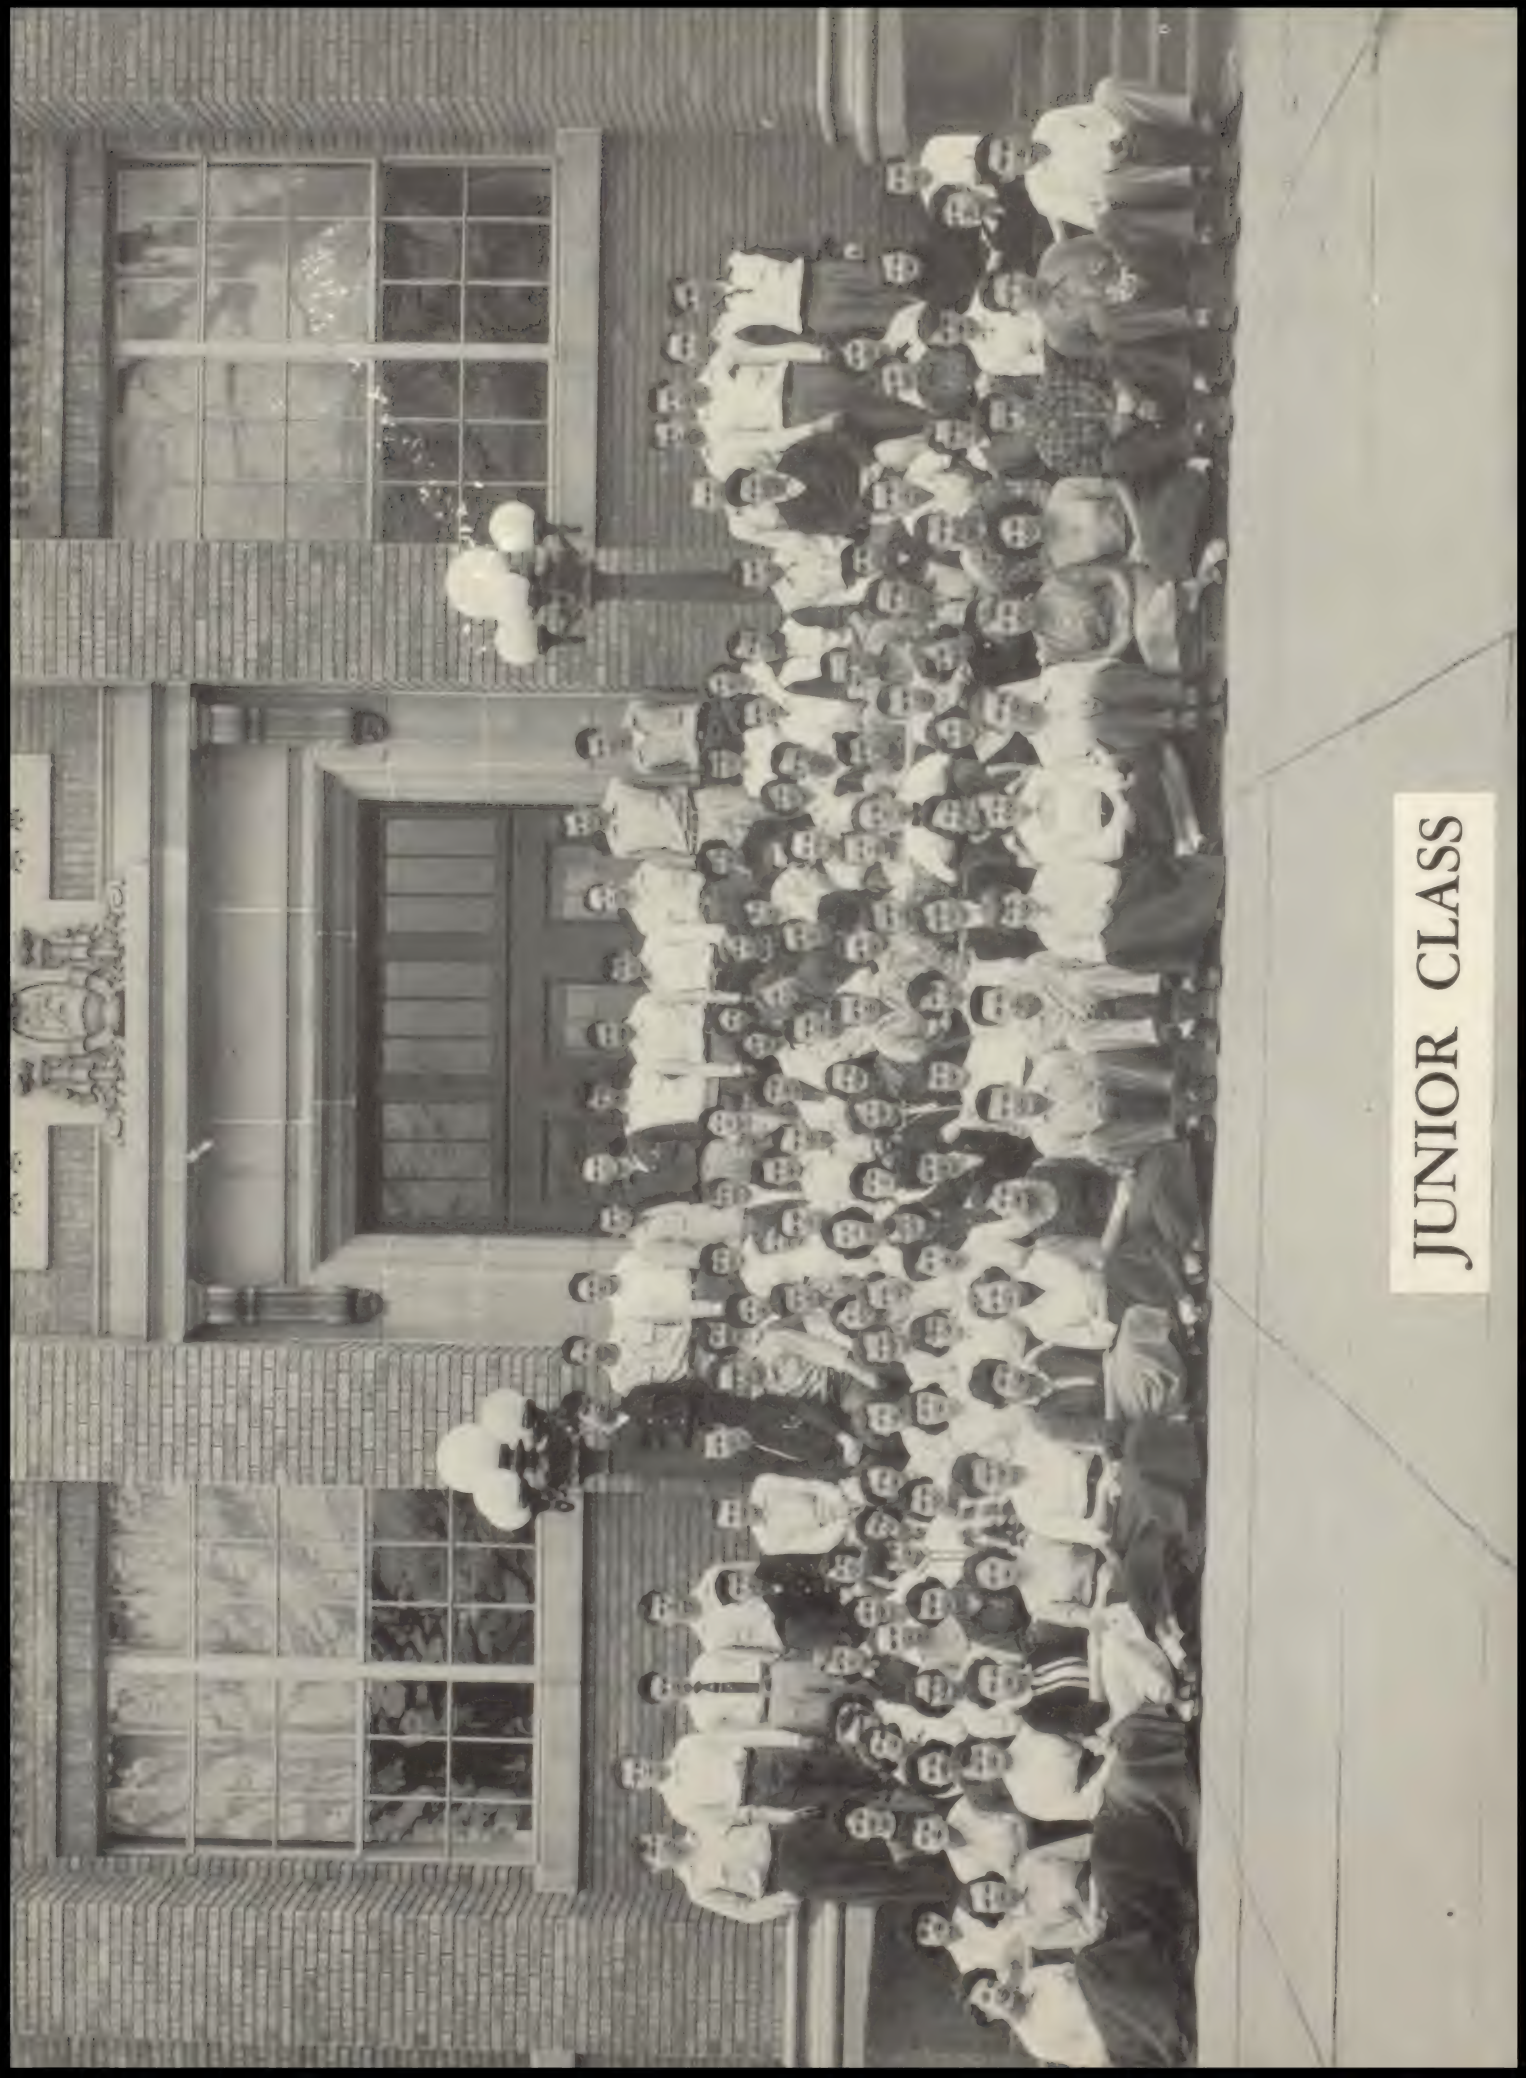

Quick, driver, to the school. I've only got an hour left. This is the school? Why, it's enormous. We had nothing like this when I went to school. That must be the office, and there's the secretary, PHYLLIS CARRIERI. I wonder if she has a list of the teachers. You have? Thank you. Let's see now. STANLEY FISHER, math., SANDRA FITZGERALD, history, JUDITH LANDRY, English, DENNIS BALSEWICZ, science, and ANNE WILLIAMS, music. I see the educational facilities are still excellent.

Well, I'd better leave after I visit the school nurse EDITH WILLIAMS. Gee, it's been fun seeing all my classmates again; just as they were twenty years ago. Oh well, back to the station, driver; time won't wait.

FOOTBALL

Due to lack of facilities and the renovation of the school, the Green Raiders, opening a belated season, were forced to play only four games.

The first game was a loss to Palmer, 12-6. Palmer's previous four game experience proved too much for the Green Raiders. The second game was easily won from Killingly, 19-7. Springfield Trade was our only home game. The Green Raiders "T" and "Wing" formations were used to the utmost in effectiveness to outscore Trade 27-6. Enfield's last game was with Classical. After three hard fought periods, the Green Raiders drove down to the goal line, scored, and won 7-0 to end a successful season.

The Green Raiders, though not playing a full schedule, still upheld the high degree of sportsmanship and honor of Enfield both on and off the field.

BASKETBALL

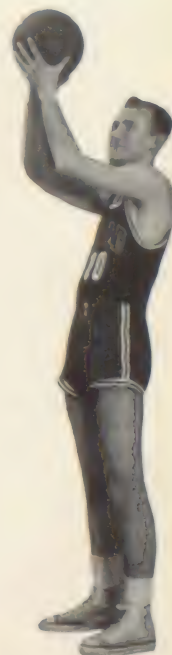

Champions of the Valley Wheel! For the second consecutive year the Green Raiders of Enfield won the Valley Wheel Title. With an exhibition of sportsmanship and true team play throughout the entire season, the Green Raiders, led by senior co-captains Wally Dineen and Jack Cerrato, sustained only one defeat against eleven wins to sweep the Valley Wheel circuit for the title.

Stalwart performances by seniors Bob Mercik and Vic Marone were deciding factors in the Wheel race.

The outlook is bright for the Green Raiders who are aiming for a successful season. A talented team led by senior captain Bob Mercik consists of senior members Stan Fisher, Dick Prayzner, Dennis Balsewicz, and Tom O'Bram. Senior Dario Russotto capably fills the backstop position for pitcher Al Arrowsmith. With talented underclassmen, these seniors intend to go on to a successful season for the Green Raiders.

Indications are a greater number of high school graduates are now enrolled in our colleges and universities than ever before in the history of our country. This is most encouraging, for it demonstrates a realization on the part of our youth, a desire to equip themselves better for the tasks that lie ahead.
